

Warm Bed Covering.

Blankets as low as $1. A firstclass Blanket for Two Dollars and Fifty cents, but for Five Dollars we have the very best Blanket you will ever find for the money.

This Fascinator 50c.

The latest Novelty Fascinator, shawl effect, with extra heavy border, giving a lace

Special Price, 50c.

Children's Leggings, 50c.

Made of excellent worsted heavy stitch, forming fancy rib. These are guaranteed perfect fitting. All sizes in stock. Special Price, 50c.

Infants' Coat, $1.75.

effect. In Black, White, Blue skirt heavily embroidered with slik, wide sand Pink. Made of good quality Cashmere, full o'mutton sleeves with deep cuff. Special Price, $1.75.

If your mind is set on securing articles suitable for a holiday presenta-tion, put the above on your "want" list. We keep all goods purchased of us now until you desire to have them delivered.

anstruigh & Bro.

420, 422, 424, 426 Seventh St.

S. Kann, Sons & Co.

8th and Market Space.

regular foot-ball rush for our toys and other holiday presents. Every floor shows Xmas gifts.

S.Kann, Sons & Co.

8th and Market Space.

Giving away money!

That's what we are doing on these goods-they cost us more than we are selling them for-but it's our way of advertising ourselves.

These prices are for today only.

$1.00 full size Pancy Table

50c Chenille Table Covers .. 36c 25c Turkey Red Damask ... 15c 35e Unbleached Damask 25c

Call and see me before purchasing your Christmas Cakes, Etc. 1 will have the largest assortment in the city.
All sizes. All prices.
Freund's loe Creams are the best.
1 qt., 50c., 2 qts, 78c., 4 qts., $1.50

MUSCLE AT THE CARNIVAL

Athletes Were the Guests of the C. A. C. Tonight.

This Will Be National Evening and a Brilliant Special Program Has Been Arranged.

The falling snow flakes and the slippery sidewalks last night had no terrors for the friends of the Columbia Athletic Club who attended the Carnival in large numbers. By contrast with the dreary, miserable surroundings of the exterior, the brilliant clubbouse was all the more brilliant and cozy and attractive.

It was "Athletic Club Night," and a very gala one, too, for there were representatives present from the Capitol Bicycle Club, Young Men's Catholic Club, Carroll Insti-tute, Outing Club, Columbia Turn-Verein, and Washington Athletic Club.

The visiting athletes and the many handsomely gowned pretty assistants made up an attractive picture.

The fishing pool has been restocked with a large number of game fish by Izank Walton Zeigler, and it is said that the fishing is much better there than at Buzzard Pay, or even at the lower necks of Virginia.

Passing through the loose floral gien, on past the booths and Honoff's handsome Capitol building, the crowd wends its way upstairs to the paddle stand, where Dick Beall and Fague and Wells and Thompson et als, are doing well their part, and giving much for little every time the wheel goes

In the gymnasium there was much to please the eye and ear. The Marine Band Orchestra played even better than usual, and Fred. Gleseking's Mysterious fady was more pleasing and more mysterious than ever.

The athletic features provided consisted of Roman ladders well executed.

sisted of Roman ladders, well executed, with the assistance of Licut. T. B. Nolan, Messrs. Elder, Holbrook, Ross, Luns-ford, Spurrier, Waters, Crow, and Cab-tera.

Harry Parke performed well a number Harry Parke performed well a number of wonderful tricks on the bicycle, supplemented by fancy riding; Bobby Elder gave a finished exhibition of fancy high kicking, and Mr. Sam Ireland presented, by request, the living reproduction of the "Angelus." after Millet, and a picture in three scenes of a football game, the lineup, the rush, and the tackle. The pictures were well executed, and reflect great credit upon artist and subjects.

Dancing closed the evening's entertainment in the gymnasium.

nent in the gymnasium. Tought will be known as the National Night, and the following highest repre-sentatives of our nation have been in-vited: The President, Vice President, Cabinet, diplomatic corps, members of the House and Senate, the Grand Army of the Republic, and the Confederate Veterans' Association. There will undoubtedly be a crush at the Carnival tonight to see and mingle with the prominent personages mamed.

A special program will be presented tonight.

of the line who are to be present, the pic-tures to be presented are: "The Picket Line." "In the Woods," and "Reconcilla-Line. In the words, and Reconcilia-tion," closing with an alicerorical picture and the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner." In the above pictures the sub-jects will wear the Union and Confederate uniforms. Miss Zoe Rigby will execute a Spanish dance, and Sewall and Ross will perform on the double trapeze.

ADDS INSULT TO INJURY.

Dunraven Says His Object Is to Secu an Impartial Inquiry. Liverpool, Dec. 11.-An interview was Liverpool, Dec. 11.—An interview was had with Lord Dunraven, who was a passenger on the disabled steamer Germanic, just previous to the departure of that vessel today.

While refusing to speak about the relative merits of the Vaikyrie III and the Defender, he said that he wished it to be distinctly understood that his going to New York was a perfectly voluntary act on his part and that his sole object in making the journey was to secure a fair and impartial inquiry by the committee of the New York Yacht Club his the charges brought by him against the defender of the America's cup.

LAUNCHED ON A SEASON OF TEAS

Society Training for the Winter With Small Functions.

Pretty Wedding at St. Matthew's Church-Notes and Personals of Well-Known People.

It was one of the rulings of the late king of the Four Hundred, that women should never argue together; that at the first sprouting of a symptom they should take partners for their orbates as for a defice, and the partners should be a man. The only trouble with this ideal decree is that the controversies of women never sprout. They spring forth, full armed, like Minerva from the fend of Jove.

An illustration of this truth was in evidence yesterday at one of the afternoon teas. A sumptuous black lace dowager was absorbing the big half of a sofa, her was ansotoping a lemon satin young matron who was plainly too anxious to please. Between them lay the character of a third woman that had been irresponsibly pluck-ed to pieces by them, as children take a flower and tear it, leaf frem stem. That is another thing about women. They is another thing about women, never mean harm; they only do it.

The dowager tolerated only those things she did herself. She had never gone on the stage, therefore; "How that wretched girl can ever hold up her head after joining a circus —"
"It was opera, and you both know it!"
Never sword flashed from scabbard switter than this interruption came from a pink chiffon blonde passing by.
It sounded very like the beginning of a quarrel, but it wasn't. It was an argument.

Miss Gale, of K street, entertained at Miss Gale, of K street, enertained at dimer last evening. The table was grace-fully ornamented with yellow ribbons and chrysanthemains, and the candelabra shaded with gold-tinted silk. The grests were Miss Campbell, Miss Davidge, Miss Poor, Mrs. Poor, and Miss Legare. Mr. Poor, Mr. Andrews, Mr. Beaty, Mr. Duval, and Mr.

west.

The table was set with exquisite taste, the centerpiece being an Oriental bowl filled with maidenhair ferms, and at either end were crystal stands of fruit. Beside each cover was a corsage bouquet of violets for the Indies or a bontonniere for the gestlemen, and a dainty menu card, painted with spring flowers and tied with avander ribbons.

Much of the artistic porcelain used was decorated by the fair hands of the mistress of the house, and a set of quaint apostle spoons, picked up abroad by Prof. Andrews, were conspicuously interesting. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. 8. H. Kaufmann, Miss Minnegerode, and Mr. Augustus Crane.

Mrs. Cleveland, accompanied by Secre-tary and Mrs. Lamont, occupied a box to witness "The Chieftain" at the National last evening.

Mrs. Frank Anderson, of No. 1632 Nineteenth street northwest, will enter-tain at a tea. 4 to 7, December 20.

Mrs. W. Corcoran Hill entertained at a be clock tea yesterday alternoone at a ber of her friends to meet Miss Reynolds. Those who assisted Mrs. ill and Miss Reynolds in receiving were res. Janin, Miss Hagner, Miss Emory, Miss Smith, Mrs. Hensphill, Mrs. Hartwell Heth and Mrs. A. B. Legare.

The engagement is announced of Miss Closson, daughter of Captain Closson, U. S. A., to Lieutenant Whitney, Fourth Ar-tillery.

Miss Edith Heiner of Seventeenth street entertained a jolly lot of young folks last evening at an informal "Welch rarebit party."

Mrs. Davis and the Misses Davis gave a to 6, in compliment to Miss Pearson of Pittsburg, daughter of General Pearson. The hallway was attractively decorated with crimeon roses, and the candelabra crimson the dining room, where a collation was set amid pink roses, was made more attractive by the presence of Miss Alden and Miss Snyder, who poured tea and chocolate.

Only young people were included among the guests. Among some of those who called were Miss Miles. Miss Goodfellow, the Misses Scott, Miss Rittenbouse, the Misses Hunt, Miss Conrad, Miss McKenzie,
Miss Josephine Kelton, Miss Condit Smith,
the Misses Laskey, Miss Coleman, Miss
Sands, Miss Smart, the Misses Campbell,
Miss Cont. The Misses Miss Casey, the Misses Carr, the Misses Coxe, Prince Pak, the Corean, Mr. Adams, Mr. McPherson, Mr. Babin of New York, and

Mr. A. G. Heaton has returned from Philadelphia, where he went to attend a reception given by Mr. Heaton, sr., to Miss Emma Nevada, the opera singer.

Mrs. Boardman gave a dinner of twenty covers, on Tuesday evening, to a very distinguished company. The drawing-room, library and dining-room were decorated in American beauty roses; the shades of the pink candles were of the bue of the roses, and the same color scheme was roses, and the same color scheme was carried out in the decorations.

The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Mackay Smith, Baron Thielmann, Mr. Carey, Miss Batcheler, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Senor Enrique Dupuy de Lome, Senora Dupuy de Lome, Fiorence and Mabel Boardman, and Mr. Nelson Mrs. Willow December 1981

Mrs. Stanley Mathews gave a dinner last evening to sixteen. The appointments were, as usual, perfect, and the handsome candelabra at each end of the table bore white candles, with snowy shades. Lillies of the valley and superb white roses fur-nished the decorations.

The Misses Merrick gave a tea last even The Misses Merrick gave a tea last even-ing, to introduce their sister, Miss Mildred, to society. The drawing-rooms were dec-orated with pains, American beauty and white roses, and upon the plane and mantels were a large number of bouquets, which had been sent to the debutante, who wa-go whed in girlish white organdic and satin ribbons.

In the receiving party were: Miss Anita Robarg in white satin, Miss Riggs in crimson Robarg in white-satin, Miss Riggs in crimson silk, Miss Dammann of Faltimore in white organdie and blue satin, Miss Merrick in blue and white Dresden silk with velvet trimmings, Miss Nannie Merrick in yeilow moire and white crepe with lace, Miss Kate Merrick in pink silk and black velvet, Miss Ramsey in blue and white silk. In the tea room Mrs. Frederick McGuire, in black and white satin, lace and diamonds, served the chocolate, while Mrs. Ashton, blue brocade, presided over the lea urn.

The tea table had a center piece of maiden hair ferns and American beauty roses, and the handsome silver candelabra at each end-had white candles with white and silver shades.

and silver shades.

Among the guests were: Justice Harlan and the Misses Harlan, Mrs. J. J. Woodward, Mr. E. W. Kittele, U. S. N.; Justice and Mrs. Morris, Mrs. and Miss Worthington, Gen. Card and the Misses Card, Mrs. J. Van Ness Huyck, Miss McBlair, Mr. George Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Perry, Miss Gales, Mrs. Condit-Smith, Miss Candit-Smith, Miss Mary Condit-Smith, Mrs. J. H. Ashton, Miss Bell, Dr. Dan B. Clarke, Mrs. and the Misses Hosmer, Mrs. Leech, Gen. and Mrs. Miss Bell, Dr. Dan B. Clarke, Mra and the Misses Hosmer, Mrs. Leech, Gen. and Mrs. Miles, Scnator and Mrs. William F. Mattingty, Admiral and Mrs. Ramsey, Commander and Mrs. B. P. Lamberton, Mrs. H. Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fitch of the U. S. N., Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Magruder, Miss Patterson, Miss Wilson, Mrs. Cullen, the Misses Collen, Mrs. Squire, Mrs. Charles H. Poor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Pfoulke, Justice and Mrs. Field, Mrs. and Miss Acosta, Mrs. and the Misses Berry and others.

The following social affairs are set for oday:
Miss Hichborn, a lincheon.
Mrs. McCammon, Huncheon
Mrs. Hokisworth Gordon a on, a tea. Mrs. B. F. Rittenbouse and Miss Ritten-Mrs. George Whitfield Brown and Miss Cuthbert, a tea. J Mme. Romero, a dinner. In Cincinnati, the marriage of Miss Nichols to Marquis de Chambrun.

Mr. William Tejmyson gave a reception in honor of the ky Lear Pleasure Ctub last evening at his residence, No. 1228 Nine-teenth street northwest.

teenth street northwest.

The enter-ainment was opened by dancing, later on followed by refreshments, the tables and rooms being elaborately decorated with paims, chrysanthemams, flowers, ets. Dancing was kept up until a late hour. During the evening Miss Carrie Kingston emertained the guests with fancy dancing, and Mr. Emil Brown and Miss Lulu Tennyson gave a violin solo with nino accommaniumen, which was and Miss Lulu Tennyson gave a violin solo with plano accompaniment, which was highly appreciated by the guests. Among those present were the Misses Carrie Kingston, Gertie Woods, Annie Chariton, Annie Bright, Delia Murpby, Jessie Murphy, Bertha Johnson, Annie Ryan, Gertrude Knight, Lulu Tenoyson, and Mesdames Tennyson and Brown, Messrs, William Tennyson, George E. Ruhl, Emil Brown, Edward Wynne, Thomas Griffin, Joseph Gtoves, Harry Tennyson, Edward Johnson, Charles Brown, Henry White, Elmer Green, and numerous others.

The Mississippians were in social con-clave last night at the hospitable home of Miss Herne Tolson, of No. 1013 P street northwest. Among the many delightful coteries in Washington none are more prominent and charming than the meet-ings of the members of the Missisappi Clab, composed of the ladies and gentlemen of the State who are now domiciled in this city.

This association is represented by a large This association is represented by a large number of members, many of whom were present last night. The program was prefaced by introductory remarks by Judge Harry Peyton, president, followed by music and rendings by Mrs. Thomas H. Herndon, Gen. J. R. Brinker, Miss Dashiell, Mrs. E. C. Herndon, Mr. H. Pey-

Poor, and Miss Legare. Mr. Poor, Mr. Andrews, Mr. Beaty, Mr. Duval, and Mr. Legare.

Prof. and Mrs. Frank Andrews gave a handsome dinner hast evening at their beautiful home, on Sixteenth street northwest.

The table was set with exquisite taste, the centerpiece being an Oriental bowlifilled with maidenhair ferns, and at either end were crystal stands of fruit. Beside each cover was a corsage bouquet of violets for the Indies or a bontonniere for the gestlemen, and a dainty menu card, painted with spring flowers and tied with lavender ribbons.

Much of the artistic porcelain used was decorated by the fair hands of the mistress of the house, and a set of quaint apostie.

Miss Pearl Wolverton, Mrs. Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney King, Miss Staacs, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wait, Mr. Shaifer, Miss Annie Hemstreet, Miss Hastie, Miss May Wolverton, Ron. John Schorfe Williams, Hon. J. G. Spencer, Mr. George Herndon, Mr. John Herndon, Mr. Lacien Herndon.

Miss Mary Frances Moran, daughter of Mr. John Moran of No. 1912 G street northwest, was married yesterday afternoon at 2 o clock, to Mr. Elihe Guy Barritt of this city. The ceremony was performed at St. Matthew's Church by Rev. Father Bart, assisted by Rev. P. J. O'Conneil of St. Stephen's. There were no attendants.

of St. Stephen's. There were no attend-ants.

The bride was gowned stylishly in a skirt of Napoleon blue cloth, with a velvet coat of the same color, showing a front of white brocade. Her Verot hat was of black, trimmed with plumes and ruby velvet, and she carried violets.

The ceremony was followed by a recep-tion for the immediate family at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Burritt left for a trip to New York, Upon Burritt left for a trip to New York. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at No. 2129 I street northwest. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Roberts gave a

art, and Mrs. Jone W. Roberts gave a party to a number of relatives and friends last evening at their residence, No. 9 Third street northeast. The evening was spent in dancing and a musical entertain-ment. Supper was served at 12 o'clock

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Myers of Vermont Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Myers of Vermont avenue, entertained some of their friends last night at a cucher party, which proved to be a delightful affair. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Frank, Miss Fannie Castleton, Miss Gladys Granger, Miss Katte McGir, Mrs. Mason, Miss Edna Goldsmyth, Miss Mabel Hofman, and Meesrs. Samuel S. Burgesa, William Price, Edward Manning, Richard Temple, Mat Stutts, N. Retiaw, Florent Martin Meline, Daniel Morten, Fred J. Boydell and Walter Scott Stetson, Miss Fannie Rosenthal and Hauk Stetson, Miss Fannie Rosenthal and Hank

The marriage of Miss Carrie Caldwell Jenkins to Rev. William G. Andrews of Culidioni, Conn., took place yesterday. The ceremony was selectmized at the home of Mrs. W. H. Parker, wide of the late Commander Parker, U. S. N., at the Milton. Rev. Dr. Randolph McKim officated,

The bride was gowned in a handsom ombination of green cloth and velvet, and wore a hat to match. She carried La France roses. Miss Alice Thornton lenkins, her sister, gowned in changesbie blue cloth and velvet and carrying crimson roses, acted as attendant.

Mr. Charles Andrews, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride was given groom, was best man. The bride was given away by her brother, Dr. Frank Thornton Jenkins, of Connecticut.

Following the wedding a collation was served, and a small reception to a few friends and relatives was held.

Among those present were: Sherlock Andrews of Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Prescott, Mrs. and Miss Parker of Baltimore, Miss Sarah E. Jenkins, sister of the bride; Mrs. P. C. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Pettis, Dr. James Durant, Mrs. W. H. Parker, her daughter, Mrs. Mrs. Haines, Mrs. et al., her daughter, Mrs. Mighton Parker, and her sons Messar. Miss Marion Parker, and her sons, Messrs Tuoraton J. and Wm. H. Parker; Mr. and Mrs. Pierce.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews left later for the South, and will make their home at Guilford, Conn., where Mr. Andrews has

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Allison of Richmond are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Alli-son of Capitol Hill.

Miss Manile Boswell of Massachusetts avenue is home, after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Lieut, and Mrs. T. B. M. Mason are estab-lished at their beautiful residence, No. 1606 I wentieth street.

Mrs. Sowers, wife of Dr. Sowers of New

NO ANTI-ENGLISH SPIRIT.

Hall Caine's High Appreciation of the American Character. Liverpool, Dec. 11.—Hall Caine, the English novelist, who returned on the steamer Teutonic from his mission to the United States and Canada, relative to the copyright laws, was questioned in regard to his trip on the arrival of the vessel hors.

here.
Mr. Caine expressed himself as extremely well satisfied with his reception in both the United States and the Dominion. He referred to the farewell banquet given to him at Ottawa, at which five ministers of the Dominion government were present. Secretary of State Montague presiding, and also spoke in appreciative terms of

Secretary of State Montague presiding, and also spoke in appreciative terms of the hospitality shown him by President Cleveland.

In Mr. Caine's opinion, the copyright act has not appreciably affected English fiction in the United States. He said that he had seen no anti-English spirit in America, although he had found much to humble the spirit of Englishmen. He expressed a very high appreciation of the greatness of the American character.

Marriage Licenses Marriage Licenses,
Marriage licenses,
Marriage licenses were issued yesterday,
as follows:
Edgar C. Blacknian and Dora S. Ballinger.
Richard T. Smith and Cassic Clemons.
John Lewis and Mary Brooks.
Shearick White and Lucy Coleman.
James E. Rallins and Carrie B. Nolle.
Charles Coleman and Sarah Williams.

At Home—Have a Good Time-

The Jewelry Sale at the Bon Marche is at its height!

CAPTURED BY THE FOURTH

South Washington Schools Crowded Convention Hall.

Many Organizations Were Present as Guests and the Booths Did a Big Business.

It was Fourth division night at the Peachers' Bazaar last night and Convention Hall was filled with a crowd of pretty girls from the South Washington schools great auditorium. The reception committee which looked after the comfort of the guests last evening was headed by Mrs. Fairbrother, the wife of Supervising Principal Fairbrother, of the Fourth division schools, who was assisted by a host of pretty young ladies, among whom were Misses Berriman, Baum, Martin, Stewart, Holingsworth, Fairbanks, Price, Chandler and others.

Of course the Fourth division booths were the course and a large cross.

the center of attraction and a large crowd surrounded the fish pond, knife stand, doll booth and the booth where the guessing con-to decide who is the most popular boy in the eighth grade of the Fourth division to decide who is the flost popular boy in the eighth grade of the Fourth division schools, and the voting created considerable interest. The contestants were Charles Jessie, of Bradley school, John Downey of Jefferson, and Charles Price of Smailwood. The poles closed last night and the result will be announced this evening.

A particularly fine program had been arranged, among the numbers being several songs by the pupils of Miss Katie V. Wilson, a skirt dance by Miss Carrie Dyer, and selections by the National Mandolin Club under the direction of Miss Alice Marble, Miss Ellia acting as planist.

Among the guesta of the evening were The Order of Marine Engineers, the Veteran Firemen's Association, the Battalion of Odd Fellows, the Master and Piolot's Association, and the Mount Pleasant Field Band, who calivened the evening with stirring marches.

one of the features of the bazaar is the book stand, where all the latest publications are for sale.

Tonight a new feature will be added at this booth when autograph books containing the signatures of Thomas Nelson Page, Henry Abbey and Edward Eggleston will be offered for sale.

Tonight will be Fifth division night, and Mrs. B. T. Janney, wife of the supervis-ing principal of the schools, in that division, will head the reception commit

STILL DISCUSSING VALUES.

Street Extension Proceedings. The street extension proceedings, institoted in the District court by the Commis-sioners, and now being heard by Justice Cox. were opened yesterday with Mr. Lester
A. Barr still under cross-examination.
Mr. Barr gave additional reasons why be regarded Columbia Heights as superior to Dennison and Leighton subdivisions for residence purposes. For one thing, he said, liquor saloons are prohibited and also manufactories.

Other witnesses were examined to identify the said of the said

Other witnesses were examined to identify papers and plats, and Mr. James J. Lampton was called to place a valuation on lots, and to state the effect which, in his judgment, would result from the proposed extension of streets through property. The lots were designated by numbers, and the values ranged from thirty-five cents to one dollar per foot.

Mr. Lampton said a lot 100 feet in depth is more valuable per foot than one of double the depth, and all lots of more than 100 feet would be benefited—at any rate 100 feet would be benefited—at any rate not injured—by the projected improvement. Mr. James Robinson, a local builder, was called to the stand by the government to show what expense would be incurred in cases where buildings would have to be removed from the line of a street.

Mr. W. C. Morrison, another builder, was also called, but his examination was deferred until Friday.

The respondent property owners will introduce witnesses today.

TO BRING HIS SON'S BODY.

John W. Mackay Gone to Europe for That Purpose.

New York, Dec. 11.—Among the passenters on board the steamer St. Louis which siled for Southampton today, are John W. Mackay and James J. Van Alen. Mr. Van Alen's name was not on the passenger list, and it was only a few minutes before the vessel cast off her lines that he reached the Half a dozen friends, Including Col. Thomas

Half adozentrems, incheming to 1 Inches P. Ochiltree, visited the big steamer to see John W. Mackay off. Mr. Mackay goes abroad to bring the body of John W. Mackay, fr., who was thrown from his borse and killed near Paris a couple of months ago, for

He did not know whether Mrs. Mackay would return with him. He said that Mrs. Mackay was very fond of Paris and London, but now that she is in mourning to probable that she will accompany the remains of her son to this country, and be present at the last rites to be performed at Greenwood Cemetery, where a $200,000 mausoleum is to be erected by Mr. Mackay.

IN EXECUTIVE SESSION.

Hazing Court of Inquiry Going Over the Evidence. The board of inquiry investigating the hazing cases at the pavy yard was in ex-ceptive session the part of yesterday.

No new witnesses were examined, and it is very probable that there will not be any more new evidence introduced. It is not at all improbable that some of the wit-nesses who have already testified will be recalled to give explanatory evidence on naterial points at issue.

The board will convene this morning at BESARGEORGEOESCESCEORORGE Feel Badly To-day?

Brown's 2 ITON Bitters

The very first dose.

IT CURES

DYSPEPSIA. RIGHEY AND LIVES

REURALGIA, TROUBLES.

GEOMYTIPATION, INPURE BLOOD,

BALARIA.

WOMEN'S COMPLAINTS.

GROUN CHEMICAL CO. BALTIMORS, MR.

BON MARCHE MISTRESS OF CASTLE HILL

Amelie Rives and Her Sister Visiting in Washington.

They Arrived Last Night and Are Staying Quietly in an Uptown

Amelle Rives, the Virginia authoress, whose recent divorce from millionaire Chanler revived the notoriety which the ownership of several erratic and crotic ovels gave her, is in Washington. Her divorce, which was suddenly an ounced some months since, set society's ague a wagging, and save the announcement from the lady herself that it was "incompatibility of temperament" the world is no wiser yet as to the real cause. It was apparently a prearranged and mutually agreeable affair in which both principals politely assisted the law's course to the desired end.

cipals politicly assisted the law's course to the desired end.

Since then, and in fact for some time before, Miss Rivers has been enjoying life on her estate in Albemarde county, "Castle Hill," which was selected as the scene for the story of "The Quick and the Dead." Around it, in the rolling hills of Albermarie, where the foot hills of the Blue Ridge lose themselves in the low-lambs, are laid most of her American stories. "Castle Hill" has been the seat of the Rives family for generations, though Col. Rives of Panama Canal fame, and father of the authoress, has lived most of his recent years in Paris.

The management of the place has fallen upon Miss America, and there she has spent must of her life, surrounded by her dors and horses.

Erratic is hardly the right word to dogs and horses.

Erratic is hardly the right word to describe this singular personality. She is a spiendid horsewoman, riges to hounds when the weather permits, and often when it does not, and sees to the crops and details of "Castle Hill" farm. What other time she has is devoted to literary labors. She is accompanied here by her sister. Miss Gertrude Rives, who is a recognized beauty and resembles much the portraits of the authoress of the "Quick or the Dead," which appeared with that or the Dead,' which appeared with that

They renched Washington last night, and have kept secret their future plans.

WONDERFUL WATER WORKS. Mr. Desmond Fitzgerald Lectures or

Mr. Desmond Fitzgerald, resident engineer of the additional supply works and superintendent of the western division of the water system of Boston, delivered a very interesting lecture inst night at Wil-lard Hall entitled "A short description of the Boston water works." Mr. Fitzgerald was one of the party that explored the Lydecker tunnel yesterday aft-

Mr. Fitzgeraid was one of the party that explored the Lydecker tunnel yesterday aft-ernoon.

The speaker was introduced by Mr. S. W Woodward, president of the board of trade. Mr. Woodward told of several great achievements made by Mr. Fitzgerald in hydraulic engineering.

Mr. Fitzgerald prefaced his remarks by giving a resume of the systems for the conveyance of water from the time of ancient veyance of water from the time of ancient Rome up to the present day.

Referring to his travels in various foreign and American cities, he said that in no two cities had he found the supplies day veloped by the same process. He briefly explained the methods in vogue in London and Paris and dwelt on the system now working in Hamburg with that of 1892, during the cholera plague.

He attributed the immense number of deaths and the cause of the disease to the impure drinking water and showed that the lorror could have been averued if the Hamburg authorities had expended the money that was required to filter the water of the Elbe.

of the Elbe.

Apropos of the expenditure of money for sanitary purposes, the lecturer said:

"Where sanitation and hygiene are in question the expenditure of money should never stop until the difficulty is entirely

Mr. Pitrgerald next explained the sys-tems of New York, Chicago and Cleveland, illustrating the working of the tunnels of the last two named cities. "Washington," be said, "has a splendid

He told how he had swallowed thousands of cyclops just to dispute popular theories that the minute bugs created a had taste in the water.

Mr. Fitzgerald was cordially applianded at the close of his remarks. His lecture was longer than he intended it should be.

but when he attempted to stop the audience begged him to continue and he very kindly bilged them.

The lecture was very instructive and concise, and better still, it was attractively

WILL GET ONE CONVENTION. Pittsburg to Harbor the Prohibiti

ists Next May. Chicago, Dec. 11.-The executive committee of the Problition party in the United States met at the Sherman House this norning to select the time and place for holding the national convention next year, which will nominate the candidate for the Presidency. Forty members, reprewhich with hominate the candidate for the Presidency. Forty members, representing as many States, answered the roll call.

Denver, Baltimore, Beston, Pittsburg, and Cleveland were placed in nomination. The Chicago delegation withdrew from the field, because it could not guarantee the payment of the necessary expenses. The first formal balls was the only one required to settle the question of which city should have the convention, Pittsburg winning with 22 votes. Denver received 13, and Baltimore 2, the total number cast being 37. The convention was set for May 27.

At the morning session a committee from the W. C. T. U. presented a memorial from that organization, stating that there should be closer co-operation between the party

KING'S PALACE Christmas

Presents

We have opened up the finest line of Toys and Holiday Goods we ever handled. Such a wealth of pretty and useful articles were never collected in one store before. We have still a few of those splendid Jackets and Capes from the Levy stock.

$9, $8 and $7 Coats and Capes at $5.98.

Plush and Cloth Capes, plain and for trimmed —Astrakhan, Bonele, Benver and Kersey Jackets, plain and rough effects, made up in latest tryle, with Lery's infinitable stamp; bez fronts, sipple backs, some with Franklyn collar—

$5.98.

$14, $13 and $12 Jackets and Capes at $9.98.

All-lined Astrakhan Cloth Jackets; box fronts ripple backs, Franklyn cellars; high in th neck, in all the latest effects. $9.98.

King's Palace,

715 Market Space.

Fresh Laid Eggs.

You cannot improve on a nice fresh egg—the trouble is is get fresh ones. We look after that Our Fancy Eggs are put up in one dozen patent pocket boxes, and every egg is guaranteed fresh. The price is no higher than others ask for inferior qualities. WILKINS & COMPANY, Square Marble and Glass Stands Center Barket

Pillsbury's Best Pilisbury's Best Pilisbury's Best Pillsbury's Best

> good bread you can make Ask your grocer for it. If signed agent will supply and the W. C. T. U., and the union tendered and the W.C. T. U., and the union tendered its services during the campaign of 1898. The attention of the committee was called to the action of the Baltimore convention that the party's name should be changed to "Home Protection," and the request was

L. H. WIEMAN, 216 10th-Street.

"Washington," he said, "has a splendid water supply compared with Boston, and you don't have to spend so many millions of dollars as the 'Hub' or New York."

He added that Washingtonians might well be proud of their system, and said that after an inspection he found that the conduits were perfect in every detail of their construction.

He briefly recited the history of Boston's system from 1846 to date, illustrating it by means of sildes exhibited on canvas by a stereopticon.

The last part of his lecture he devoted to showing the various animalculae which inshowing the various animalculae which in the party platform to a declaration for female suffrage. The committee was also asked to unite the Womani's Prohibition League to the union's.

Eckington Bill in the House.

Mr. Coffin of Indiana has introduced in the Eckington and Soldiers' Home Railway Company. This is the same bill as the one introduced in the Senate by Senator Prohibition and Soldiers' Home Railway part platform to a declaration for female suffrage. The committee was also asked to unite the Womani's Prohibition League to the union's.

Eckington Bill in the House.

Mr. Coffin of Indiana has introduced in the Eckington and Soldiers' Home Railway Company. This is the same bill as the conduction of the womanite was a long to the Womanite was also asked to unite the Woman Japanese Engravings at Auction. The Deakin sale continues to attract large crowds during the day and evening at Latimer's Art Galleries, 1229 and 7231 G street northwest. Books and engravings only are offered at the evening sale, 8 p. m. Other sales at 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m.

UNDERTAKERS.

J. WILLIAM LEE.
UNDERTAKER,
First class service. 'Phone, 1885.
194-6m

DIED.

WINFIELD—Joseph, the beloved husband of Susan Winfield, departed this life Tuesday night, December 10, 1895.
Funeral will take place from residence, No. 412 Second street southwest, Thursday evening at 3 o'clock. Belatives and friends are ipvited to attend.

MARRIED. GEIER-KEITH-At 3 o'clock p. m. on Tuesday, December 10, 1895, at 8t. Mary's Church, by the Rev. Father Ghab, Ellza-beth A. Keith and John K. Geler, both of

A Gold Ring makes a good Christmas present. One do lar a week will soon pay for a

Room 8 Central Bdg

GEORGE D. HORNING,

WASHINGTON'S Most Reliable and Reasonable MARKET.

MAIN MARKET: 1306-1312 32d Street.

1718 14th St. n.w. 2026 14th St. n.w. 13th & N. Y. av. n.w.

4th & | Sts. n.w. 20th & Pa. ave. n.w. 8th & M Sts n w. 215 Indiana ave n.w. 3057 M St. n.w.

Emrich Beef Company.

Branch Markets: